Around the Clock at Goodrich High

FOREWORD

In preparation of this annual we have tried not only to review the major events of this year but also to recall the daily atmosphere of G.H.S. in action. Through the use of color and our opening section we have tried to emphasize this concept. Therefore we dedicate this 1966-67 Martian to every student and the faculty of Goodrich High School.

Watch out! Here comes the lunch line!.... Do you mean to say that a senior boy actually asked a senior girl out? WOW!... We're having that for lunch? I think I'll have a candy bar instead... When are the teachers having another faculty meeting? I'm getting sick of school... Are we having a test today?! I haven't even read the chapter yet.

Sophomore Class

Decisions! Decisions! Which ring will we choose? Judy Reinker, treasurer; Susan Coffee, reporter; Jackie Rockafellow, vice president; Carol Alford, secretary; Tom Howes, president; and Mr. McNally, sponsor.

The Sophomores contribute their part to the Homecoming activities.

Sophomores Joe Slavens, Tim Bohlen, Sherry Walters, Larry Welch and Tom Howes believe: "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council leads the way . . .

The Student Council serves as a liaison between the students and faculty. Through the Student Council, important suggestions are introduced for the improvement of Goodrich High School. Some of the activities sponsored are Homecoming, a clothing drive called Bundle Days, the monthly Birthday Bulletin Board, the Student of the Week, and the Carnival. Through these functions the Student Council has financed foreign exchange students and an Outdoor Bulletin Board.

Each grade elects two members to be their class representatives to the Student Council; one member is elected for a two year term, the other for a one year term. Also, school clubs elect a representative. The president and vice-president are selected by the entire student body the previous year they are to be in office. For the first time, the secretary and the treasurer were selected by the student body. For its members, the Student Council provides a training ground in self-government and civic leadership.

OFFICERS: Candy Bouck, reporter; Sally Trumble, secretary; Penny Wirgau, treasurer; Joe Kyle, vice-president; Connie Bell, president.

Exchange Students

The Finn's favorite foods

The Floyd Ash family hosts Marketta.

Marketta Aho, 17, from Finland and Mr. Rubén Lucas, 17, from Uruguay discuss their new school.

Marketta comes from a family of three children; her hobby is chess.

Rubén comes from a family of three children, also. His hobby is agriculture.

Rubén is the guest of the Joseph Kyle family.

Varsity

Club

Club officers Richard Blessing, Vice President; Sponsor Mr. Hughes, Melinda Meranda Secretary; Joe McNeil, Student Council; Shelley Letts, Treasurer; and Ralph Marcotte, President go over plans for baseball diamond.

Rosie takes an active part in selling keychains.

Miep brings a cake to celebrate the New Year.

It's only a matter of time.

Our exchange students carry the inaugural pillow onto the field.

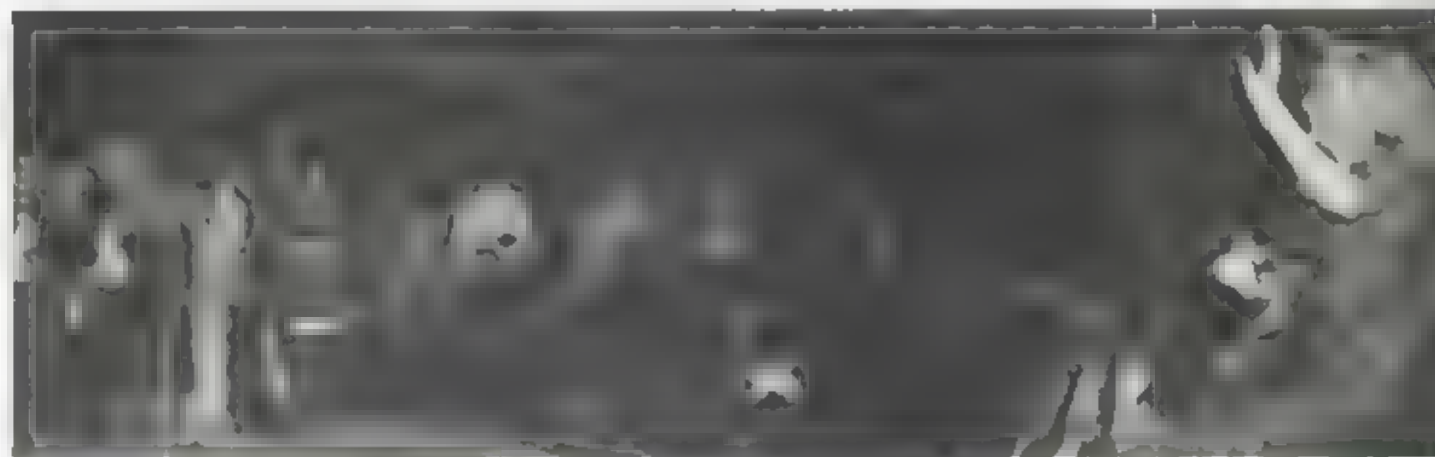

Under the watchful eye of Mr. Trumble, Joe Kyle presents the Royal roses.

Our Queen

Carrie Nichols, 1965 Homecoming Queen, crowns Sally, the new Homecoming Queen.

As is traditional, Sally takes her victory ride.

Penny Wirgau and Connie Bell are the other candidates for Queen. Members of the Court were: Junior, Rosemary Andrews; Sophomore, Sherry Barker; Freshman, Janet Munger.

Our 1966-67
Homecoming
Queen . . .

Miss Sally
Trumble

Come on gang! Are we gonna burn 'em? Shelley and Candy lead the homecoming crowd down to the field where Penny and Sally and Rosemary have started a bonfire.

The pep, the pep! We've got it, now keep it, doggone it don't lose it.

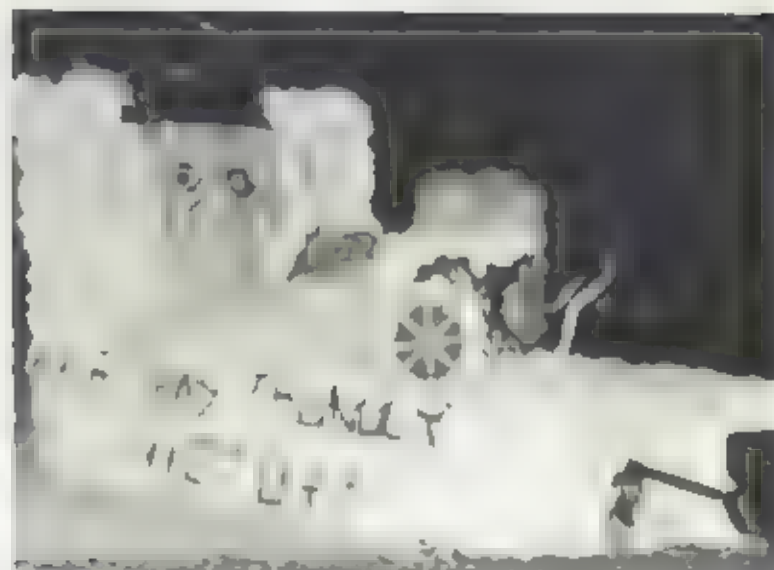

Cheer, Cheer the gang's all here. Alumni, teacher, parents and students all rally to the call of Homecoming Week.

Mythical Evening

The Seniors will be float
Aries, "God of War"

The Sophomores also contribute
"Aries, God of War"

Junior class presents
"Thor, the Thunder God"

The float competition is a traditional home-coming activity. Each year the classes separately design and construct their own floats. The floats are judged, and a plaque is awarded to the best one. This year the Senior class won first place and the Junior and Sophomore classes tied for second place.

The Freshman float...

When you read the news you know!

D.A.R. Good Citizen

Three qualifying girls are chosen from the senior class from which one is selected by the faculty. Moral Character, leadership, and good citizenship, are the criteria for selection.

National

Honor

Society

Purposes of Goodrich's Chapter of National Honor Society:

It promotes enthusiasm for scholars.
It encourages students to develop a high degree of learning.

It creates a closely knitted school and community.

The National Honor Society, recognized in all high schools of the United States, carries high significance and unusual prestige.

It is a stimulus for the students to observe others and encourage character development.

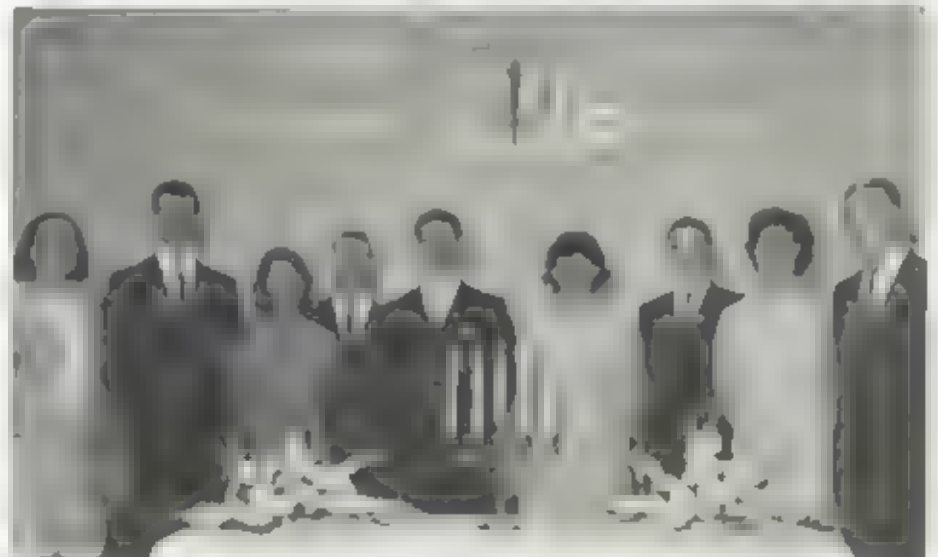

It challenges the student to evaluate himself and develop potential leadership abilities.

SENIOR MEMBERS: Penny Wirgau, Connie Bell, class sponsor, Mr. Wolff, Terry Harris, Marilyn Brown.

Members of the Goodrich Chapter are elected by the faculty during the fall of the junior year or may be selected during the senior year. The qualifications, to be met by each individual, include scholarship (3.00 grade point average), leadership abilities, character and service.

Officers elected by the 1966-67 chapter are president, Penny Wirgau; vice-president, Terry Harris; secretary, Marilyn Brown; treasurer, Kathy Brosius.

Senior class sponsor, Mr. Fritz Wolff; high school principal, Mr. Roy Stacey; superintendent of schools, Mr. Miles Robinson; Honor Society sponsor and junior class sponsor, Mr. Thomas Thompson.

President Penny Wirgau receives gavel from outgoing president Clarence Mylin.

Projectionists

Mr. Noll shows the projectionists some fine points about operating a movie projector.

Librarians

Mrs. Pintek and her student librarians try to make the library a pleasant place to study, do research, or read.

Office Assistants

The office assistants help Mrs. Miles with the myriad tasks involved in facilitating the demands of a community on a school.

Mod-Monkeys Migrate

Sophomores Tom Howes and Carol Alford have Mod-Monkeys Sally Koon and Diane Donaldson well in hand.

Last fall the Mod-Monkeys migrated from "Tarzan" state modeling the latest in mod attire; "barney" bur-lap bags and becoming bathing caps for that "bald look."

'Push that penny down----- and push it up,' says Pete Frick.

Nocturnal Mod-Monkeys march through marsh.

Condette Staff

A new system of publishing the school paper was tried this year. Six editors, instead of one, take turns in putting out two editions each of the Condette. This system instills competition and produces quantity and quality.

66-67 Condette editors are Joe Kyle, Mary Halstead, Linda LaCross, Charlotte Heck, Jack Middleton, Jackie Smith.

Annual Staff

The annual staff rushes to meet a deadline with Mr. Van Dette, advisor, pointing out the pages that have to be done.

Charlotte Heck, junior assistant, and Penny Wirgau crop and enlarge pictures.

Bob Morea and Lee Steinhoff work on the outline of the sport section.

The Dawning of a New Day

The end of this year comes with the end of the school year and the parting of seniors. With the dawning of this new day and age comes a new horizon to reach for. Enjoy your hours at G.H.S. so that you will welcome the dawn of your special day.

lucky,
You're real sweet kid,
I am even a sweeter
kid! "a, ha!" Keep up the
